

ATTORNEY MAIVUE XIONG JOINS
WELD, RILEY, PRENN & RICCI, S.C.

For Immediate Release

November 30, 2010

EAU CLAIRE– The law firm of Weld, Riley, Prenn and Ricci, S.C. is pleased to announce Attorney MaiVue Xiong has joined the firm.

Commenting on MaiVue joining the firm was Weld, Riley President, Steve Weld, “We are excited to have an Altoona native join our firm. In her new role with us, MaiVue will practice law in the areas of general business, business start-ups, and the formation of corporate entities.”

MaiVue is also a member of several local organizations including the Eau Claire County Bar Association, Young Professionals of the Chippewa Valley, Junior League of Eau Claire, and is a founding member of the Hmong Professionals of the Chippewa Valley (HPCV). HPCV is a new organization whose mission is to work with young Hmong people in the community to help them maintain their cultural identity as well as become professionals and contribute to the local community.

MaiVue graduated from Altoona High School and received her undergraduate degree at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, where she also received her law degree. During law school, MaiVue volunteered for the Legal Information Center in Madison which earned her the Wisconsin Asian Bar Association Community award. MaiVue and her spouse reside in the Chippewa Valley.

The Weld, Riley, Prenn & Ricci law firm was formed in 1991. The firm practices in all major areas of the law and is comprised of a Litigation, Labor and Employment, Business and Real Estate and Government Relations Sections. The firm employs 65 people and is the largest law firm in the Chippewa Valley.