

ATTORNEY NICK HENNEMANN JOINS
WELD, RILEY, PRENN & RICCI, S.C.

---

For Immediate Release

May 17, 2011

EAU CLAIRE - The law firm of Weld, Riley, Prenn & Ricci, S.C. is pleased to announce Attorney Nick Hennemann has joined the firm.

Commenting on Nick joining the firm was Weld, Riley's President Steve Weld, "We are excited to have a River Falls native join our firm. In his new role, Nick will practice in the Government Relations Section. Nick will represent municipalities in all areas of municipal law and represent individuals, corporations and entities on environmental permitting and regulatory matters."

Previous to joining the firm, Nick served as an assistant to both Senator Sheila Harsdorf and former Senator Ron Brown. While doing legislative work, Nick was responsible for working on environmental, natural resource and transportation matters. Prior to earning his law degree, Nick worked for the law firm of Williams & Connolly in Washington, D.C., as well as the Attorney General's office in Alaska. Nick also currently serves on the Eau Claire Chamber of Commerce Public Affairs Committee.

Nick graduated from high school in River Falls and received his undergraduate degree at the George Washington University in Washington D.C. Nick is a graduate of the Lewis & Clark Law School in Portland, Oregon. Nick and his family reside in the Chippewa Valley.

The Weld, Riley, Prenn & Ricci Law Firm was formed in 1991. The firm practices in all major areas of the law and is comprised of a Litigation, Labor and Employment, Business, Real Estate, and Government Relations Sections. The firm employs 60 people and is the largest law firm in the Chippewa Valley.