For Immediate Release

January 7, 2010

EAU CLAIRE and MENOMONIE – The law firm of Weld, Riley, Prenn and Ricci, S.C. is pleased to announce Attorney Daneille M. Strong has joined the firm.

Daneille graduated cum laude from the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire with majors in Criminal Justice and English. She received her law degree from the Hamline School of Law in St. Paul, Minnesota, and graduated with honors in advocacy skills. Daneille grew up in Watertown, Wisconsin.

“We are excited to have Daneille join our firm,” said Firm President Steve Weld. “Adding her to our Litigation Section will increase the depth of our business and assist us in better meeting the legal needs of our clients. Her hiring is a part of a conscientious attempt of the firm to hire the best and brightest legal minds, and we know she will excel in insurance defense and civil litigation on behalf of our Chippewa Valley clients.”

Weld, Riley, Prenn & Ricci was formed in 1991 and has grown to 34 attorneys. The firm practices in all major areas of the law and is comprised of Litigation, Labor and Employment, Business and Real Estate, and Government Relations Sections. The firm employs 64 people and is the largest law firm in the Chippewa Valley.
